

Langer quotes

'Looking at the Ryder Cup from a Christian point of view, there has only ever been one perfect man, the Lord Jesus, and we killed him. I only missed a putt.'

A journalist once asked me, 'What would you have as your epitaph?'
I replied, 'It doesn't make any difference what's written on your gravestone. It's only important that your soul's going to heaven.'

as a Masters champion I get an invite for life. Sam Snead and Gene Sarazen have sometimes teed off and even played a few holes. With my back, somehow I don't think that I will be playing in the Masters when I am ninety!

'It's a great honour to win the greatest tournament in the world, and especially on Easter Sunday, the day my Lord was resurrected.'